Corner-Stone Plans Progress

Good reading these past few weeks has been the continuing series in the North Woods Club (indicatedly called the North Woods) by those lacking the proper respect on the canoe vs. trout fishermen problems on the AuSable. Let us hope that the editor of the paper will continue to present intelligent viewpoints from both sides of this question. Wasn't this same paper made loud editorial noises that the trout fishermen just might as well realize that the canoes were going to take over despite anything the fishermen might want to do? And didn't this same editor imply that trout fishermen were more or less doing in the manager? Thus it is surprising to say the very least, to note this more or less fair expression of both sides. Keep it up. North Woods Club; the change in attitude is refreshing!

Hunt Escapee In County

A search going on from Sunday evening to Tuesday morning in Crawford County still has not turned up Harold J. Hawver, an escapee from Camp Grayling, Corrections-Conservation work camp at the Hartwick Pines State Park.

Hawver was discovered missing Sunday evening about 9:30 and a search was carried on all night by camp guards, State Police and Sheriff's officers.

Monday afternoon on county road 612 near the junction of M-39, Hawver was observed in a chinking. He was picked up by John Peterson of Maple Forest who recognized the escapee. He told Hawver he was driving him back to camp, upon being asked if he would be driven to US-27. Hawver dove from the car and escaped again into the woods.

State Police, Sheriff's officers and camp guards are continuing the immediate area during the afternoon, evening and night without success.

Hawver was serving a term of 18 months for a violation of the check law. He was sentenced to Southern Michigan prison at Jackson from Detroit.

Division Attendance Expected To Hit 11,000

The fifth and largest 1957 Michigan National Guard field training at Camp Grayling, Michigan, will get under way Saturday, August 10, at Camp Grayling, Michigan, announced by Major General Gordon A. Macdonald.

Approximately 11,000 members of the 48th Division and attached units from some 50 communities are expected to get a new total attendance record for the state-owned military reservation.

It will be the eleventh field training session for the 48th Infantry Division since its organization began late in 1946. Commanding General of the division is Major General Gordon A. Macdonald of Detroit.

Michigan National Guard anti-aircraft artillery units already have completed two periods of field training at Camp Haven, Wisconsin, and at Camp Claybanks, Michigan. A third session at Camp Grayling with retrograde training is currently under way at Camp Claybanks.

Scheduled to train with the 48th Infantry Division at Camp Grayling are State Headquarters and Headquarters Detachment, Lansing; 107th Ordnance Company (Direct Support), Pontiac; 139th Army Band, Detroit; and 139th Engineer Company (Float Bridge), South St. Louis.

Primary missions of the 48th Division during its two weeks at Camp Grayling are individual training, small unit training, service practice firing, and the ceremonial of leadership.

Range firing and similar training will occupy the attention of the units during the first week at Camp Grayling, with retrograde exercises topping off each day's activities.

During the second week, troops will spend two nights in bivouacs as they participate in Operation "Hawver." The division exercises will run from noon, August 20, to 9 a. m., August 22.

Approximately 45 applicants will be selected for the Michigan National Guard Officer Candidate School. Successful applicants will undergo their first term of training during the field training session.

The colorful activities of Governor's Day, Saturday, August 17, will highlight the halfway mark in 1957 field training at Camp Grayling.

Again as last year, the Michigan National Guard will provide adequate supervision. The movement last year resulted in no damage to either county roads or city streets, it was said.

The route followed by the big tanks will be the same as last year. The route will start at Higgins Lake and will end at the Michigan National Guard camp Visiting the John Canfields, Jr., the weekend of July 27th were their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hatch and son of Leslie. Their son John was also home from Wayne, spending a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Brown and two sons of Jackson visited the Canfields last week.

also other friends. Mr. and Mrs. Dale Pettengill and daughters Friedella and Janey returned home last Thursday after spending the past four months in Arlington, Va., and Washington, D. C.

Miss Jean and Mary McPhail of Dunbarton, Scotland, were guests for two weeks at the Casser, Logans at Wildwood, near the river. The Logans showed the two guests all of the sights around the county and they were very much impressed with Grayling and Crawford County. Also visiting were Mrs. Ethel Hartman, daughter Joy and two sons Ray and Richard and family from Blissfield. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forrester of Roscommon and her father Walton Babcock and wife, Avery Babcock's wife and part of their family, and other visitors, Mrs. Grace Funch of Flint and Eldorado, Claude Kiethe of West Branch and Charles Edith of Grayling. A very pleasant and enjoyable dinner was had, with a pot luck dinner and a nice warm day.

Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Stealy returned home last week after spending a week in Detroit and in Saginaw where they visited their mother, Mrs. Paul Perkey. Recent guests at the Stealy home were his cousin and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Verness E. Stealy of Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Legner left Thursday and planned to spend three weeks at their cabin near Neshewy.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Johnson and four children of Toledo, Ohio, arrived the middle of July and are spending four weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Walters, Lake Margrethe.

Folks tell us that there are a fair amount of huckleberries this year, in spite of the recent lack of rain.

Guests of the Bud Gould family for several days last week were his mother, Mrs. Peter Van Male and his sister, Mrs. John Beals of Cedar Springs and his aunt, Mrs. George Wood of Big Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. George Griffith and Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Henig were the hosts to about 30 friends at a barbecue supper at the Griffith home last Thursday evening.

Sunday, a week ago Mr. and Mrs. Peter Burke of Prudenville called at the home of her sister, Mrs. Pearl Moon.

Mrs. Archie Howse has a night blooming cactus which bloomed last week. It had eight white blooms eight inches across. The plant blooms once a year and for only one night. Previously it had had only three blooms. Neighbors stopped in to enjoy the sight. Mrs. Howse is a cactus fancier and has 30 some cactus plants many of which are the blooming variety.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Cocking and son Lloyd of Oxford and his fiancée Miss Delores Mott of East Lansing, were guests at the Thomas Haugh home the weekend of July 27th, during the Haugh's absence while attending the Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Norton F. McGuire of Detroit were vacationing at his father, Mr. McGuire's home at Eldorado, with friends. They were here during the weekend of July 27th, and attended the Richardson-Haggard wedding reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Vincent of Bradenton, Fla., arrived last Thursday to visit their daughter and family, the Bob McClains, for about a week.

one brother Carl Olson of Frederic and one son Harry Berg and 2 grandchildren Judy and Debbie of Grand Rapids.

Dr. Leonard Allison was asked to check the story of the siscowet caught in Shu-Pac Lake recently, which he did. Below is a communication received by him:

July 29, 1957
To L. N. Allison, Fish Pathologist, From C. Troy Yoder, Regional Fisheries Supervisor, Michigan Dept. of Conservation, Subj: Trout Planted in Shupac Lake, Crawford County.

In checking the file I find that 542 trout, averaging 12.4 inches in length were planted in Shupac Lake on June 6, 1956. These were a cross between siscowet and lake trout from Lake Superior. They were a part of Dr. Eschmeyer's experimental work in determining the taxonomy (classification) of the two types of trout. They were reared at Marquette, and in 1956 he decided he had more fish than he would need to continue his experiment, and consequently 100 fish were planted in Shu-Pac Lake. This was pic

Dr. Wm. T. Shannon left Sunday to attend his granddaughter Virginia Shannon's wedding in West Point, Mass., this coming weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Snook of St. Louis, Mich., spent Monday night of last week with the Ward Hamblins.

Dr. Leonard Allison was asked to check the story of the siscowet caught in Shu-Pac Lake recently, which he did. Below is a communication received by him:

July 29, 1957
To L. N. Allison, Fish Pathologist, From C. Troy Yoder, Regional Fisheries Supervisor, Michigan Dept. of Conservation, Subj: Trout Planted in Shupac Lake, Crawford County.

In checking the file I find that 542 trout, averaging 12.4 inches in length were planted in Shupac Lake on June 6, 1956. These were a cross between siscowet and lake trout from Lake Superior. They were a part of Dr. Eschmeyer's experimental work in determining the taxonomy (classification) of the two types of trout. They were reared at Marquette, and in 1956 he decided he had more fish than he would need to continue his experiment, and consequently 100 fish were planted in Shu-Pac Lake. This was pic

GLEN - FREEMAN
WED JULY 7th

On Sunday evening July 7th at 7 p. m. Presilla Mary Glen became the bride of Altran Kenneth I. Freeman at an impressive double-ring candlelight service at the Memorial Church with the Rev. B. C. Puffer officiating. The church was decorated with baskets of various gladioli. The bride wore a finger-veil with a seed pearl headpiece. Her gown was of fitted nylon-lace, with length. Her bridal bouquet was pink roses and white baby mums tied with lacy ribbons and lilies of the valley with streamers. The groom wore his white Navy uniform. The bride's only attendant was her cousin Linda Bradstrom of Cheboygan as maid of honor. Miss Glen was given in marriage by her uncle, Ray Bradstrom of Cheboygan. Mrs. T. P. Peterson presided at the organ and Mrs. Triggs, Stephan sang "Because" and the "Lord's Prayer".

Miss Patricia Kayne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Kayne of Detroit, Mich., became the bride of Irving E. Drinkaus, son of Irving W. and the late Mrs. Drinkaus of Grosse Pointe Park, on Saturday, August 3rd at ten o'clock in the morning. The Rev. Hugh White performed the double ring ceremony at the Grosse Pointe Methodist church. The bride was gown in white tulle and lace with pearl trimmings. Her lace veil was held in place with a crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid. Her matron of honor, Mrs. Kyle Heglin of Detroit, wore a blue chiffon gown and carried white roses. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kayne wore a gown of pink lace over tissue taffeta. A wedding breakfast for 25 guests was held at the Detroit Yacht Club. A reception was held at the groom's home later. The newlyweds left by plane for Allen's famous lodge at Lake Mattiendi near Blind River, Ont., for a three-week honeymoon. They will spend a fourth week at the Drinkaus lodge on the mainland.

TALK ABOUT ECONOMY...

FORDS COST LESS PER MILE!

Fords cost less to buy! Fords cost less to run!

No doubt about it! Model for model, Ford cars are the lowest priced* of the low-price three. And don't be fooled by those "low prices" now being quoted for some "stripped down" models in the medium-price field. Remember, a '57 Ford equipped the way most people want a car today—with automatic transmission, heater and radio—costs hundreds of dollars less than these medium-priced cars, similarly equipped. *Based on comparison of manufacturers' suggested retail delivered prices

Fords cost less to trade!

Latest official auction sale figures on used cars show clearly that the new kind of Ford commands a higher price than either of its two low-priced competitors. The men who bid at these auctions are professional buyers—men whose very livelihood depends upon their expert knowledge of cars. They pay more for used Fords because they know that Fords hold up in value. Like thousands of Ford owners from coast to coast, they have discovered that Ford is worth more when you buy it... worth more when you sell it, too!

What's Inside A "TUBE-STEAK"

Some time ago, we were invited to a get-together with charcoal eating "tube-steaks" as the main attraction. It seemed that some one had slipped on the spelling. Did they mean tube-steaks?

The price made us curious. . . well . . . the "tube-steaks" were delicious. This famous menu product is a hit at every baseball game and is usually referred to as a hot-dog.

While watching the glow of the coals, one of the guests asked, "What's inside a 'Tube-steak'?" Another countered with "Should be a good story for your column." So, here it is.

"Tube-steaks" (frankfurters) are a variety of domestic sausage. Bologna, pure pork or fresh sausage also belong to this group.

Sausage is considered a manufactured food product made by combining a number of raw materials. These consist of high-grade beef and pork trimmings which are ground or chopped by machinery. Other raw materials, such as spices, and in some cases, cereals are added to give the desired flavor and consistency. The many products of our sausage factories are recognized as being among the aristocrats of modern foods.

You don't have to attend a ball game to enjoy "tube-steak" eating. The youngsters will thrill to a backyard picnic. You can get the buns, mustard, pickles and good quality "tube-steaks" at our store. Dish washing can be eliminated if you pick up some paper plates and napkins.

Stop around next week when we talk about the color in our cheeks.

Flower Gardens About The County

By Polly Mikesell

The real credit for this series of articles about places of real beauty, large or small, and the people who have created them, goes to Grayling's C. C. secretary, manager Bob Hayes. It has been his desire for a long time to give credit to anyone who has made an attractive picture spot of what otherwise might be just an empty space, to let them know that the effort and talent put forth in painting pictures with flowers and thereby sharing the result with anyone who will look at them is appreciated.

Bits O' Talk

Mrs. John Hume entertained a group of ladies at luncheon at the Hume residence last Thursday.

Guests at the Wilbur Cornell home were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Buchanan and children, Lewis and Rodney, who returned two weeks ago from a two-year assignment in Germany. Mr. Graham is with the army engineers in a civilian capacity. They returned to his base in Lowell, Oregon, Monday after spending the weekend. Mr. Cornell's aunt, Mrs. William Cowles of Leslie, also visited them for the weekend. A brother, Elmo Cornell, of San Bernardino, is spending some time visiting the Cornells.

Mrs. Jack Cook and son John left Friday for Bristol Beach, near Bay City to spend the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Schweinsberg. Dr. Cook joined them on Saturday.

Have your diamond reset in a beautiful new mounting while you wait at Davis Jewelry.

Mrs. Laura London Parker stopped in at the Avalanche for a visit last week. Laura had time was a printer at the Avalanche and was interested in seeing some of the improvements made. We knew that the Claude Nashes of Saginaw had bought 80 acres near Venderbilt, but didn't realize that Mrs. Nash was Laura's daughter. Laura told us that the Nashes have been improving the home on the property they bought. The Nash children, who have always lived in the city, are most enthusiastic about the move to the "wide open spaces," and expressed the desire to buy a cow. Their dad explained that they had already spent a good deal of money in fixing up the house and that cows were expensive. "Oh well," said one of the youngsters, "maybe we could buy a cow."

Mr. and Mrs. Hurl Deckrow and Mrs. Tom Wells spent the weekend of July 26th in Lansing, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wells and family.

BRIDAL SHOWER HELD

Miss Kay Ann Parkinson was the guest of honor at a bridal shower at the Parkinson home Thursday evening. Misses Barbara Cornell and Beth Koerber and Mrs. Don Denton were the co-hostesses to some twenty-seven guests.

Two games were played, one with safety-pins and another with nylon stockings. The pin game was won by Miss Shirley Meaker, the nylon game by Miss Mickey Mikesell. The prizes were turned over to the bride-to-be.

Following the games, Miss Parkinson opened her many lovely gifts. She was assisted by Miss Evelyn Weiss and Kay Ann's little brother Kim. Refreshments of cake and lemonade were served and the evening was a very enjoyable one.

FETED WITH BRIDAL TEA

A kitchen shower was given Miss Holly Piper last Wednesday, July 31st by Mrs. Fred Bear and Mrs. Charles Kroll. The affair was an afternoon tea, at which about twenty guests were present at the Bear home.

A small umbrella frame wrapped in lace and blue ribbon, with a big blue bow on the handle, rested over a bowl of water lilies on the gift table. A set of Revere ware was the shower gift.

A most enjoyable afternoon was spent by all the ladies.

CMC PLANNING BIG 2 DAY FLOWER SHOW

Mr. Pleasant — Gladiolus plants are in bloom and so are final arrangements for the world's largest flower show scheduled for August 16-17.

With the 8th annual Central International Gladiolus show now only one week away, final plans are being made for the flower festival that could attract as many as 15,000 people.

Mr. Charles B. Park, director of the show to be held in Mt. Pleasant at the Central Michigan College fieldhouse, reports that exhibitors will represent at least 10 mid-western states and Canada.

"We are going all-out to make this the finest show ever held," states Mr. Park. The show returns to Michigan after a six-year absence. Last year's program was held on the campus of the University of Wisconsin.

River Of Sams

the growing fishing pressure. By 1905 the grayling had about disappeared and the main catch now was brook trout, with some night fishing done with cut bait for rainbow trout. The day fishermen were mostly fly fishermen, using three or four flies on a leader. But in another use for this stream developed. A series of power dams were built at various points along the river. This created new possibilities as the six dams impoundments were large enough to stock "warm-water" fish. Bass, bluegills, pike and walleyes, were introduced and attracted still more fishermen. In addition to fishing camps, year around homes were now being constructed the length of the river.

But it was not until the middle 1920's that the brown trout began to draw large numbers of fishermen to this river. By 1930 the trout was the main catch and a demand for night fishing developed. By the middle 1940's you had to stand in your fishing hole before the caddis hatch to be assured of a place for that evening's fishing. Transportation was changing, too. The AuSable riverboat was being replaced by canoes which were car-portable and easily moved from place to place. With the canoe came the camera fan who had discovered the beauty of a stream which now once again had a shoreline of pines and spruce and balsam swamp growth.

To meet this demand liveries sprang up with canoes for rent by day or week, and thousands of persons used the river on summer weekends. In 1947 we saw this beautiful river gain further prominence. Not this time, for notable fish, but for the new famous canoe race that attracted brawny canoeists from all over the country.

The increased demand on the resources of this beautiful stream brings us to the present in the long colorful history of this long and colorful river.

Maple Forest

By Miss Bessie Feldhauser, Mrs. Arthur Howes and Mrs. Carrie Beynham

Mrs. Ed Feldhauser was taken home by ambulance on Tuesday after having been a patient at Mercy Hospital for over 16 weeks. She is much improved and able to be up a few hours each day in a wheel chair.

Mrs. Pearl Babbitt was hostess to the Home Extension Club on Tuesday night with 10 members present. After a brief business meeting the evening was spent visiting. The next meeting will be a Hot Dog and Hamburg Fry at the Town Hall on the out-door grill on Tuesday, Aug. 13th at 6:30 p. m.

"EASY DOES IT"
 BY... KILLEN HALE

HERE'S a good casserole to take along on a picnic. Mix canned baked beans with catsup and brown sugar and place in casserole. Top with pork sausage links placed like the spokes of a wheel, and then place apple wedges on all along the side. Heat, cover and transport to the picnic.

Out of barbecue sauce when you're ready to grill? Brush with French dressing as a pleasing surprise.

Make "wetters" out of your hamburger mixture and press in a long piece of American cheese. After broiling, serve these in Coney buns.

Make several batches of cookies over a period of time and always freeze a small portion of each.

THIS WEEK'S RECIPE

Marshmallow-Pineapple Mold (Serves 4-6)

- 1 package lime-flavored gelatin
- 1 cup of hot water
- 1 cup pineapple juice and water
- 2 slices pineapple, diced
- 2 marshmallows, finely cut
- Dissolve gelatin in hot water.
- Add pineapple juice and water.
- Chill until slightly thickened.
- Fold in pineapple and marshmallows. Turn into mold. Chill until firm. Unmold and serve with marshmallow sauce, if desired.

batch. Then you'll have cookies to take along on a picnic when the time comes.
